

Singapore Convention Roundtable
Singapore, 7 August 2019

I used to think that mediation was only for countries like mine which have no law sometimes to cover specific matter. But from Singapore Ceremony for signing of Singapore Convention, I have come to realise that mediation is a prevalent culture worldwide.

Therefore, my country is going to domesticate the Singapore Convention according to our Constitution, hereby after the ratification it will become part and partial of our domestic laws.

PAULINO WANAWILLA UNANGO

Minister of Justice and Constitutional Affairs The Republic of South Sudan